

PROVIDER SURVEY

While it is commendable that you want to work with girls; and while you may show up to work everyday ready to help, sometimes the personal biases and challenges and baggage that we bring to the work as providers or educators can get in the way of us doing the best job possible. For this reason, every now and then we need to check in with ourselves to make certain that our stuff does not get in the way of us helping girls move through their stuff. Take the survey and based upon the answers, determine if you need to catch up on the personal work we all must do to ensure that we are bringing our best selves to the job...regularly.

1. What might be the most difficult part of yourself to give away?
2. What or who unnerves you?
3. Where is your deepest hurt right now?
4. Why should girls trust you with their stuff?
5. How do you handle conflict?
6. In your opinion, is there anything that is unforgivable?
7. How is the young child in you doing?
8. What do you do when you don't know what to do?
9. Who took you to yourself?
10. What do you still need that you haven't gotten?
11. To date, what is the most valuable deposit anyone has made into your life?
12. How do you avoid the urge to take things or people personal?
13. What are you bringing to the table as it relates to helping girls?
